

DO YOU HOLD A BOARD CERTIFICATION?

Legal Education is an Ongoing Goal

The Florida Association of Legal Support Specialists (FALSS) has developed a Board Certification Program to enhance its members' level of professional excellence by becoming board certified in a specific area of law. This program is also being offered to any legal professional who wishes to become a board certified legal support specialist. Specialty areas currently available for certification include Civil Trial Law; Wills, Trusts, and Estates; and Family Law. Other specialty areas are currently being developed.

BOARD CERTIFICATION SEMINARS

FALSS offers Board Certification Seminars with Florida Bar CLER Approval. So, even if you are not planning to take the Board Certification exam, you still have the opportunity to obtain continuing legal education credits. Find out more about your specialty area and how much you really know about communication skills, ethics, exercise of judgment, and much more.

FALSS prides itself in providing affordable, in-person continuing legal education seminars, where you have the opportunity to interact with the speaker and attendees, brainstorm, and make contacts throughout the state.

REVIEW COURSES

Review Courses are offered in each specialty area periodically during the year for those interested in board certification. Even if you are not interested in board certification, these courses provide an in depth, comprehensive review of the most current rules in each specialty area. If you are interested in a Review Course, you can find more information on the FALSS's website at (www.falss.org).
